

Victory

Whether in war or in peace, in joy or in sorrow, in ease or in hardship, in calm or in anxiety, entrust your heart to God and never forget His remembrance.

This is the secret to victory.

Do not let the mundanity of the world lead you into heedlessness and forgetfulness of God, nor allow its crushing sorrows to distract you from His remembrance.

The more we increase the measure of our remembrance and mindfulness, the more we reduce heedlessness and ignorance of God, thereby bringing the world closer to mercy. This is a definite promise from God.

By remembering God through the name "Al-Hayy Al-Qayyum" (The Ever-Living, The Sustainer), we attain honor in life and steadfastness.

Aba Abdillah Al-Hussain

"Every day is Ashura, every land is Karbala."

We stand in opposition to the enemies of God and alongside His friends.

We have reached the shrine of Aba Abdillah (peace be upon him) and have separated ourselves from the cowardly and the oppressors.

As we draw nearer to the night and day of Ashura, we see ourselves closer to our Creator.

The world does not proceed according to our calculations, and it is decreed that in this battlefield, we will all either attain martyrdom or fall into captivity.

What a mighty God this is!

Minds tremble in fear before this divine will. Eyes search endlessly to change destiny, yet find no path, falling into despair and regret. Understanding fails to comprehend the reason behind this great calamity.

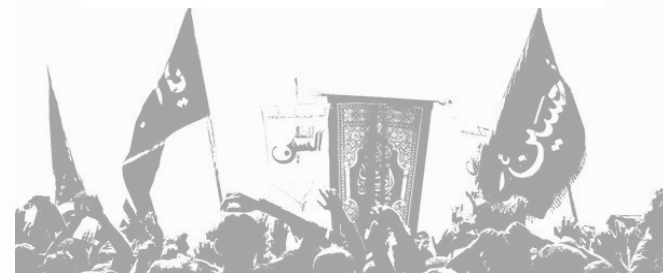

anxiety, remain bewildered and restless. Most importantly, every believer asks: How could God permit so many pure and beloved ones to be led to the sacrificial ground all at once?

What a mighty God this is!

Karbala and Ashura represent the ultimate manifestation of pure monotheism—unique scenes that astonish minds and shatter illusions.

Who is this God who acts thus with His Messenger, allowing him to endure such a tragedy for the guidance of all creation?

حُرِّبُ الْحُسَيْنِ

Religion and Knowledge

In a world where hypocrisy and deceit, lies and trickery, cunning and guile have taken the place of truth, and darkness is mistaken for light;

one must aim at the heart of darkness with an arrow made of light, and ignite an explosion of illumination.

To seek the light, one must rise up.

Join us...

Islam

The era in which we live is but a part of history, not its entirety.

Adam and Eve (peace be upon them) descended and raised the banner of faith on earth, yet they were met with the treachery of Cain. The flag of monotheism was passed hand to hand, shoulder to shoulder, from one prophet to another, while the Cain figures one by one faded into dark history.

Today, the banner of monotheism rests upon the shoulders of the Baqiyat Allah—the remaining proof of the prophets and the righteous servants of God—while the Cain-like adversaries line up against him.

The movement of truth is continuous; from Adam to the Baqiyat Allah, its continuity has never been compromised, not even for a moment. The voice of truth that rises from the oppressed around the world is the same cry of all the oppressed since the dawn of history until now.

And today, we, as a continuation of this stream of truth, have become the bearers of the banner of monotheism.

This banner has never fallen to the ground and remains ever unfurled.

The Beloved God

The code name for our current operations is the name "Aziz" (The Beloved) of God—a name that embodies the strength and power of divine lordship.

God's power manifests itself intensely in the following ways:

how an oppressed nation becomes beloved by all peoples of the world;

how a great revolution spreads and establishes itself globally;

how unity emerges against the enemies of faith as a result of unfolding events;

how hypocritical oppressors destroy their own homes with their own hands;

how the arrogant powers of the world are brought low;

how the global balance rapidly shifts to eliminate hollow superpowers;

and how the faith of men and women is elevated.

The True Mujahid

A true mujahid is one who dedicates their life, wealth, and everything they possess solely to the service of God.

Such a person plans meticulously to reach their goal and to overcome the enemies of God, never neglecting the strategies they have set.

Therefore, the true mujahid maintains persistent effort and continuity in both their plans and daily life.

In their struggle against the enemy, they proceed only with knowledge and insight.

The mujahid is a diligent practitioner, grounded in firm and sufficient beliefs, exhibiting timely, precise, and comprehensive actions, guided by a lofty vision aligned with the Divine Guardian.

The goals and vision of such a mujahid are, on one hand, in harmony with God and the Prophet, and on the other, emerge from sincere effort, conviction, and practice.

These aims and visions reach the heights and breadth of monotheism.